

Calendar of Torah and Haftarah Readings
5779 – 5781
2018 – 2021

Notes:

The Calendar of Torah readings follows a triennial cycle whereby in the first year of the cycle the reading is selected from the first part of the parashah, in the second year from the middle, and in the third year from the last part.

Alternative selections are offered each shabbat: a shorter reading (around twenty verses) and a longer one (around thirty verses). The readings are a guide and congregations may choose to read more or less from within that part of the parashah. On certain special shabbatot, a special second (or exceptionally, third) scroll reading is read in addition to the week's portion.

Haftarah readings are chosen to parallel key elements in the section of the Torah being read and therefore vary from one year in the triennial cycle to the next. Some of the suggested haftarot are from taken from k'tuvim (Writings) rather than n'vi'im (Prophets). When this is the case the appropriate, adapted blessings can be found on page 245 of the MRJ siddur, Seder Ha-t'fillot.

This calendar follows the Biblical definition of the length of festivals. Outside Israel, Orthodox communities add a second day to some festivals and this means that for a few weeks their readings may be out of step with Reform/Liberal communities and all those in Israel. The anticipatory blessing for the new month and observance of rosh chodesh (with hallel and a second scroll reading) are given for the first day of the Hebrew month. Those who also wish to observe rosh chodesh on the thirtieth day of the preceding month (and therefore may need to bless the month a week earlier) will accordingly need to include hallel, a second scroll reading (Genesis 1:14-19) and haftarah for rosh chodesh.

There are some instances where there is a discrepancy in the chapter and verse divisions between Jewish and non-Jewish editions of the Bible. As this calendar follows the Jewish system, it is advised that a Jewish edition of the Bible is used for all readings.

This calendar is based in form and content on the previous calendars edited by Rabbis Jonathan Romain and Reuven Silverman.

The readings are also published as part of the calendar on the Reform Judaism website. Queries, comments and corrections should be addressed to me, Rabbi Paul Freedman, c/o Radlett Reform Synagogue, 118 Watling Street, Radlett, Hertfordshire, WD7 7AA or rabbipaul@radlettreform.org.uk.
